JAPANESE ADVANCE ON HANKOW AT STANDSTILL ON SOUTH BANK OF YANGTSE

New Offensive Begun

Shanghai, September 9.

According to reports reaching here from Japanese quarters it would appear that the Japanese advance on Hankow has been brought to a standstill on the southern bank of the Yangtse some five miles from Teih which is situated to the west of Lake Poyang and that the Chinese resistance at that spot could not be broken even by bringing strong Japanese reserves into action.

Hence the Japanese today began a new offensive simultaneously from three bases on the north bank of the river. It is stated that one Japanese army is advancing from Kwangsi—which is a strategically important town in the eastern section of the province of Hupeh—in a north-westerly direction whilst a second army has already captured the little town of Chiehling, about midway between Kwangsi and Kishui.

A third army is said to be marching from the north on Hankow and to be engaged in severe fighting with strong detachments of Chinese troops west of Lichiat—(Transocean).

KOWLOON CINEMA EMPLOYEE DIES FROM STABBING

INVOLVED IN FIGHT IN CANTON ROAD

An employee of the Kwong Ming Theatre, Yau-mai, named Ng Wah-kan, aged 22, who was admitted to the Kowloon Hospital on Wednesday evening suffering from two stab wounds, died shortly after admission.

Police investigations revealed that Ng was seen about 9.30 p.m. on Wednesday, fighting with Cheung Shu-fai another employee of the Kwong Ming Theatre, in Canton Road. But it was not known that whether or not he had received his injuries then or after. Ng arrived at his friend's house in a weak condition.

The incident was not reported to the police till 2.15 p.m. the next day when Ng was discovered by his friend in a house at Hamilton Street, suffering from stab wounds. He was taken to the Kwong Wah Hospital and was later conveyed to the Kowloon Hospital as his condition had become worse.

Cheung Shu-fai who had obtained leave from the Theatre has left for the country, and is now being sought by the police.

DARING ROBBERY IN SCHOOL IN TERRITORIES

MASTER BOUND AND GAGGED

Five men, one armed with a revolver, carried out a daring robbery at a school in Kowloon, Sal Kung, New Territories, on Wednesday night.

They entered the school building by forcing open the door, bound and gagged the schoolmaster, Mr. Hui Mot-nam and decamped with a 10 shilling note and Hong Kong money to the total value of $34.

Leaving two men on guard, three robbers entered a second house to commit another robbery. The inmates struggled with them and during the fight a shot was fired, but fortunately no one was injured. The intruders finally overpowered the inmates and made away with gold ornaments and money to a total value of $18.70.

The robbers made a further attempt to enter a third house, but alarms were raised and they made good their escape.

Dr. Hodza Receives Memorandum From Sudeten Delegates

TALKS WILL NOT BE RESUMED UNTIL AFTER HITLER'S SPEECH

Prague, September 9.

Dr. Milan Hodza, Czech Prime Minister, this morning received the Sudeten German delegates and it is understood that they handed him a memorandum stating their case regarding alleged maltreatment and grievances of the Sudetens.

Resumption of talks on the Czech Government proposals are thought to be unlikely until after Herr Hitler's speech on Monday.

Four fresh incidents have been reported in four towns in Sudeten territory. They proved to be not serious but there is evidence of prevailing tension.

Dr. Edouard Benes, Czech President, will broadcast on Saturday.—(Reuter Bulletin).

ITALY AND GERMANY

Paris, Sept. 9.

In the event of a European war Italy will be found on the side of Germany if such a war should be in the nature of an ideological crusade against National Socialism is the opinion voiced by the paper Paris Midi, which says that any hopes that might formerly have been entertained of Italy remaining neutral in the question of Czechoslovakia must now be definitely abandoned.

The paper adds that Count Ciano informed the French Charge d'Affaires that Italy would be compelled to take measures for the security of her French frontier should more reservists be called up.—(Transocean).

EARLY NEGOTIATIONS

London, Sept. 9.

The possibility of the British Government identifying itself officially with Lord Runciman's mission in Prague and thereby assuming direct responsibility for the carrying out of conditions proposed by the Czechoslovak Government is envisaged in political circles here which are now inclined to be less pessimistic and regard the reopening of negotiations between the Czechoslovak Government and the Sudeten German Party at an early date as probable.—(Transocean).

"BLACK-OUT" WAS SUCCESSFUL, DECLARES COLONY A.R.P. OFFICER

Public Warmly Thanked For Co-operation: Will Hold Another Test Soon

SEARCHLIGHTS WILL NOT BE USED AS WARNING SIGNAL IN EMERGENCY

Speaking over Z.B.W. last night on their impressions of the "black-out" test on Thursday night, both Wing Commander A. H. S. Steele-Perkins, Air Raid Precautions Officer, and Colonel N. M. S. Irwin, D.S.O., M.C., General Staff Officer (1), remarked that the "black-out" was a great success, the A.R.P. Officer expressing cordial thanks to everyone concerned for their hearty co-operation.

Wing Commander Steele-Perkins stated that very few weaknesses were found and perhaps the greatest of all was the failure of a small minority of motorists to dim their lights. He announced that it was hoped that another "black-out" will be held next month.

Colonel Irwin said that as regards the warning signal the experiment was an entirely new one. As carried out on Thursday night in a bright moon, said Col. Irwin, it might safely be said that the searchlights were not a success and in any case he would make it clear that they will not be available for that purpose in an emergency.

Wing Commander Steele-Perkins said: "I should indeed be lacking in courtesy if I did not at once thank most cordially everyone concerned for their hearty co-operation in the 'black-out' test. When you realise that it was necessary to call together several conferences to arrange details and to write many hundreds of letters to individuals asking for their co-operation in sounding air raid alarm signals etc., etc., I am sure I may ask for forgiveness if I do not specify individuals, but instead to ask you, one and all, to accept my grateful thanks for your help in my efforts to make the 'black-out' a success.

Last but not least my sincere thanks are due to the community at large for the successful effort, which were made by all to "black-out" your premises. A word of praise is especially due to the sampans in this connection. GREAT SUCCESS. It is not possible, at this moment, to give a considered opinion as to the success or otherwise of the "black-out", and I venture only to express my first impressions which are that the "black-out" was a great success in that everyone co-operated wholeheartedly and did their utmost to carry out the request which had been addressed to them.

Grave Charge Against Young Chinese

DISCHARGED OWING TO LACK OF EVIDENCE

Owing to the fact that there was no evidence to support the charge, Tsoi Kee, aged 25, who was accused of having had carnal knowledge of a girl aged 11, was discharged by Mr. Butters at the Central Court yesterday.

Tsoi was alleged to have interfered with the child on many occasions between July 12 and August 5.

Detective Inspector Darkin was in charge of the prosecution. Mr. C. A. Sutherland Russ, for the defence, pleaded not guilty.

Inspector Darkin told the Court that the girl's mother allowed her to work for the defendant, looking after his child. She slept in the same cubicle with defendant, his wife and child.

OFFENCE REPEATED
It was alleged that a week after she went to work, defendant interfered with her. Since then he had repeated the offence the last occasion being on August 6.

On August 7 the girl went back home to her mother and cried. She was then taken to the police station and later to the hospital, where she was examined.

Mr. Russ submitted that the girl's mother visited her daughter on August 5 and had ample opportunity then to make any complaints, which she did not. Mr. Butters agreed with the submission.

POSSESSION OF DRUGS
With one previous conviction against him for violation of the Drug Ordinance, Cheung Yee-mui again appeared before Mr. Edwards at the Central Court yesterday on a charge of possession of six tael of prepared opium at Fat Hing Street. A fine of $600 or four months' imprisonment was imposed.

Charged with the possession of five tael of prepared opium at the Canton Wharf, a married woman, Wong Yee, was fined $250 or three months' imprisonment.

Charged with the possession of about 1 tael of prepared opium and keeping an opium den, Wong Nam was sentenced to two months or six weeks' imprisonment, with the alternative of a fine of $160.

CHINESE POSITION IMPROVED

Kichun, Hupeh, September 9.
The Chinese position on the north bank of the Yangtze River is said to have improved noticeably after the re-capture of Kwangsi, important town in east Hupeh, last night.

The Chinese troops which retook the town are now frantically strengthening their defences in anticipation of a Japanese counter attack whilst other units are relentlessly pressing on Hwangmei, the stronghold of the Japanese on the north Yangtze bank.

It is learned that the Chinese field headquarters has telegraphically reported the Chinese victory to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and requested him to reward the Chinese troops responsible for the re-capture of the city as an encouragement. (Central News)

VATICAN STAMPS

A Small state—and Vatican City is one of the smallest—can easily be at a great disadvantage in the matter of stamps, because more people might want them for collection than for regular use.

This happened in connection with the first issue of air mail stamps which were put on sale in the Vatican Post office in July. Within a week the whole issue was sold out, though extremely few were used for the purpose for which they were intended. A new and larger issue was ordered immediately.

The new stamps are very effective in design. They are of the same pictorial quality as the commemorative issues that have appeared so far. In the highest value, 5 lire, the subject is Elias going to heaven in the fiery chariot, and the main feature is two splendidly drawn horses that fill the centre in a most decorative way.

RHEIMS CELEBRATIONS

The solemn reopening of Rheims Cathedral was a remarkable event in many ways, not the least of which was the demonstration that people still think enough about ecclesiastical architecture at its best to contribute nearly £16,000, 000 for the rebuilding of a church.

The reopening of Rheims Cathedral was a remarkable event in many ways, not the least of which was the demonstration that people still think enough about ecclesiastical architecture at its best to contribute nearly £16,000, 000 for the rebuilding of a church.

Rheims Cathedral is generally considered the most beautiful of all Gothic Cathedrals. It was practically completed in one century—an unusual thing in connection with cathedrals. Charles VII was crowned there through the agency of Joan of Arc.

BIRMINGHAM'S CENTENARY

It is a century since Birmingham received its Charter of Incorporation, and the occasion was celebrated in many ways, one being a Solemn High Mass in St. Chad's Cathedral.

The Archbishop, speaking on that occasion, pointed out the great progress, from the spiritual as well as from the material point of view, that has been made during this century. A hundred years ago there were only two Catholic churches. Now there are thirty-two parishes.

Mass was celebrated also for the welfare of the city and civic authorities. It was attended by many holders of important public offices in the City.

THREE ROUSING CHEERS

This unusual title for an autobiography belongs to a very unusual autobiography. It is the personal record of one of America's most successful newspaper ladies and writers of magazine fiction, Elizabeth Jordan.

As a young Catholic girl in a convent school she thought at one time of being a nun, but she decided that a very different vocation, journalism, was hers. While still a young girl in her teens she visited the Editor of the New York World and made herself a member of his staff before he seemed to have realised it.

Later she was editor of Harper's Bazaar for many years, and had the satisfaction of helping to make many writers—including Sinclair Lewis, whose first novel she helped to publish after it had been rejected by several publishers.

She was literary adviser to a film combine in the days when Samuel Goldwyn was still called "Goldfish" and was paid $5,000 a year for doing it as a part-time occupation. When she was offered the post she did not want it, so she suggested this salary. To her surprise and somewhat to her consternation it was accepted.

CHRISTIAN SERVICE LESSON SERMON

SUBJECT: SUBSTANCE

The subject of the Lesson Sermon in all Christian Science churches tomorrow, Sept. 11 will be "Substance."

The Golden Text will be "Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled." (Matt. 5: 6).

Among others the following citations will be read from the Bible, "Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised); and let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works. But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions; for ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance." (Heb. 10: 23, 24, 32, 34).

The following citations will also be read from the Christian Science Textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy "Christianity causes men to turn naturally from matter to Spirit, as the flower turn from darkness to light. Man then appropriates those things which 'eye hath not seen, nor ear heard.' Paul and John had a clear apprehension that, as mortal man achieves no worldly honours except 'by sacrifice, so he must gain heavenly riches by forsaking all worldliness. Mortals must look beyond fading, finite forms, if they would gain the true sense of things. Where shall the gaze rest but in the unsearchable realm of Mind?"

The Real "Silent Service"

Royal Navy's Surveyors

In the Mall, level with the north door of the Admiralty, stands a statue of a naval officer in eighteenth-century uniform. From an inscription on the base one learns that it represents Captain James Cook, the finest navigator and surveyor that ever lived.

More than any other man Cook is the inspiration of the least-known and most silent branch of the Royal Navy, the hydrographical surveying service. Much of its work is performed in remote places, and so far as honours and promotion are concerned its rewards are almost non-existent.

In no other department of naval activity does the consciousness of work well done count for so much as an incentive to further effort. In this respect the spirit which took Cook into unknown regions to fill up wide gaps in knowledge of the Antarctic and Pacific is still very much alive today.

EIGHT VESSELS

Normally the Royal Navy maintains in commission eight surveying vessels, all but two in foreign waters. In addition, the Royal Australian and Royal Indian Navies own one apiece. In the course of a recent cruise in H.M.S. Jason, a new surveying ship, the writer was deeply impressed with the extent and variety of her duties, for which, like most of her kind, she has been "adapted."

In fact, she is identical in design and construction with contemporary minesweepers, with a displacement of 830 tons and a speed of 17 knots, but without their armament.

In the past surveying vessels have often mounted a three-pounder, but being officially rated as "non-saluting ships," this is nowadays regarded as superfluous. Yet the little 3-lb. gun is occasionally used, as for example on June 22, 1911, when H.M. surveying ship Sealark, at Tulagi in the Solomon Islands, fired her weapon twenty-one times as a Royal salute in honour of the Coronation of King George V.

Though mechanical sounding machines are still provided for emergencies, entire reliance is placed on "echo" sounding gear except when working in boats. It gives a complete and exact record of the contours of the bed, and has added greatly to the rapidity and efficiency of sounding work.

Sometimes a surveying ship may be seen at anchor in the open sea, apparently idle. Nothing of the kind! She is purposely remaining motionless for some hours in order to test and record the strength of the tidal stream for the benefit of navigators. At other times she may be perceived towing a small float which performs curious antics as the ship changes course or speed.

This is actually the visible portion of a form of sweeping gear, used not for locating mines, but to determine the position and exact depth of obstructions to navigation, the presence of which is suspected "from information received." During last year 156 such dangers were discovered by H. M. ships, while sixty-two others were removed or their existence disproved.

ARDUOUS TOURS

Coast-lining, or the accurate delineation of high and low-water marks around the coasts of an area under survey is another concern of the hydrographic branch.

It involves pacing every inch of the shore and fixing wateline positions on the chart by means of sextant, theodolite, etc., with notes as to whether the shore is composed of rock, sand, gravel, or mud, its colour, and the height of any off-lying rocks.

As a rule a small boat accompanies the surveyor on this arduous tour.

Such work can be a real delight to those whose taste is for the exploration of lonely spots in tropic seas, and consequently the successful surveyor's job often becomes a hobby.

On the Jason's cruise, already mentioned, there were on board a party from the Field Survey Association, formed in 1919.

Its members are qualified surveyors, physicists, and others with scientific training of a kindred nature, whose enthusiasm has in-

HAVING WONDERFUL TIME

A romance that is nearly frustrated by convention forms the pivotal situation of "Having Wonderful Time," co-starring Ginger Rogers and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., which is showing at the Queen's Theatre today.

A young stenographer, embittered with her prosaic existence, encounters an ambitious law student working as a waiter at a summer camp. Although the girl has a job in the city, the young man has no prospects of employment, and the happy consummation of their romance appears to be thwarted.

Jealousy and misunderstandings add to the futility of their love until the determined secretary takes matters into her own hand and proves to him that their love supercedes the old-fashioned precepts in regard to marriage.

FOUR MEN AND A PRAYER

Loretta Young, the beautiful Hollywood star, is teamed with Richard Greene, a young English actor, in her latest picture, "Four Men and a Prayer."

Greene is the nephew of Evie Greene, well-known English musical comedy star, and his mother, Kathleen Gerrard, plays character roles on the London stage.

This latest romance features in the supporting cast such seasoned players as George Sanders, David Niven and C. Aubrey Smith.

ROCKET SHIP

A thrilling new note in adventure yarns will be sounded when Universal's "Rocket Ship" opens at the Alhambra Theatre today.

The story has to do with a mysterious force from Mars which is causing world ruin by drawing nitrogen from its atmosphere.

Frank Shannon as a brilliant scientist sets out in his rocket ship to destroy this menace, accompanied by Buster Crabbe, his adventurer-assistant, Jean Rogers, his fiancée, as well as a stowaway newspaper man.

Travelling far out into space, they are suddenly pulled to Mars by the same force which is depleting the earth's nitrogen. Here the earth people encounter a series of exciting adventures which sweep on to an amazing climax.

Loretta's Leading Men

STAR DUST

Loretta Young, Alice Faye, Marjorie Weaver and Joan Davis are to be the four pilots in Tall Spin, Twentieth Century-Fox's feminine flying film.

Undeterred by their failure last year, Fredric March and his wife mean to go another stage play this autumn. March will make one more film after "There Goes My Heart," before leaving for New York.

Warners are putting Humphrey Bogart and the Dead End Kids in a story called "Concentration Camp." They insist that the action takes place in no particular country.

Joe Pasternak has Deanna Durbin's pictures planned three in advance. After "Three Smart Girls Grow Up," and "First Love," comes "Unfinished Symphony." Third is about a slum girl brought up by a policeman, a priest and a cantor, learning to sing Catholic hymns and Jewish chants.

Sybil Jason, over whom a parental lawsuit is being waged, gets a part in "Curtain Call" by request of the star, Kay Francis.

When Mark Sandrich leaves Radio, having finished directing "Astaire and Rogers in Carefree," he'll go to Paramount to direct Jack Benny in "Man About Town."

Columbia are planning a sequel to "There's Always a Woman." Melvyn Douglas will be again but with another leading lady, as Joan Blondell's baby is still too young for Joan to start work again.

Brian Aherne is seriously, though not dangerously, ill in Paris with a throat infection.

"FLAMBOYANT" CAR GIRLS

The Rev. R. D. Cooke, Vicar of Ippippen, near Newton Abbot, speaking at the village flower show recently, said:

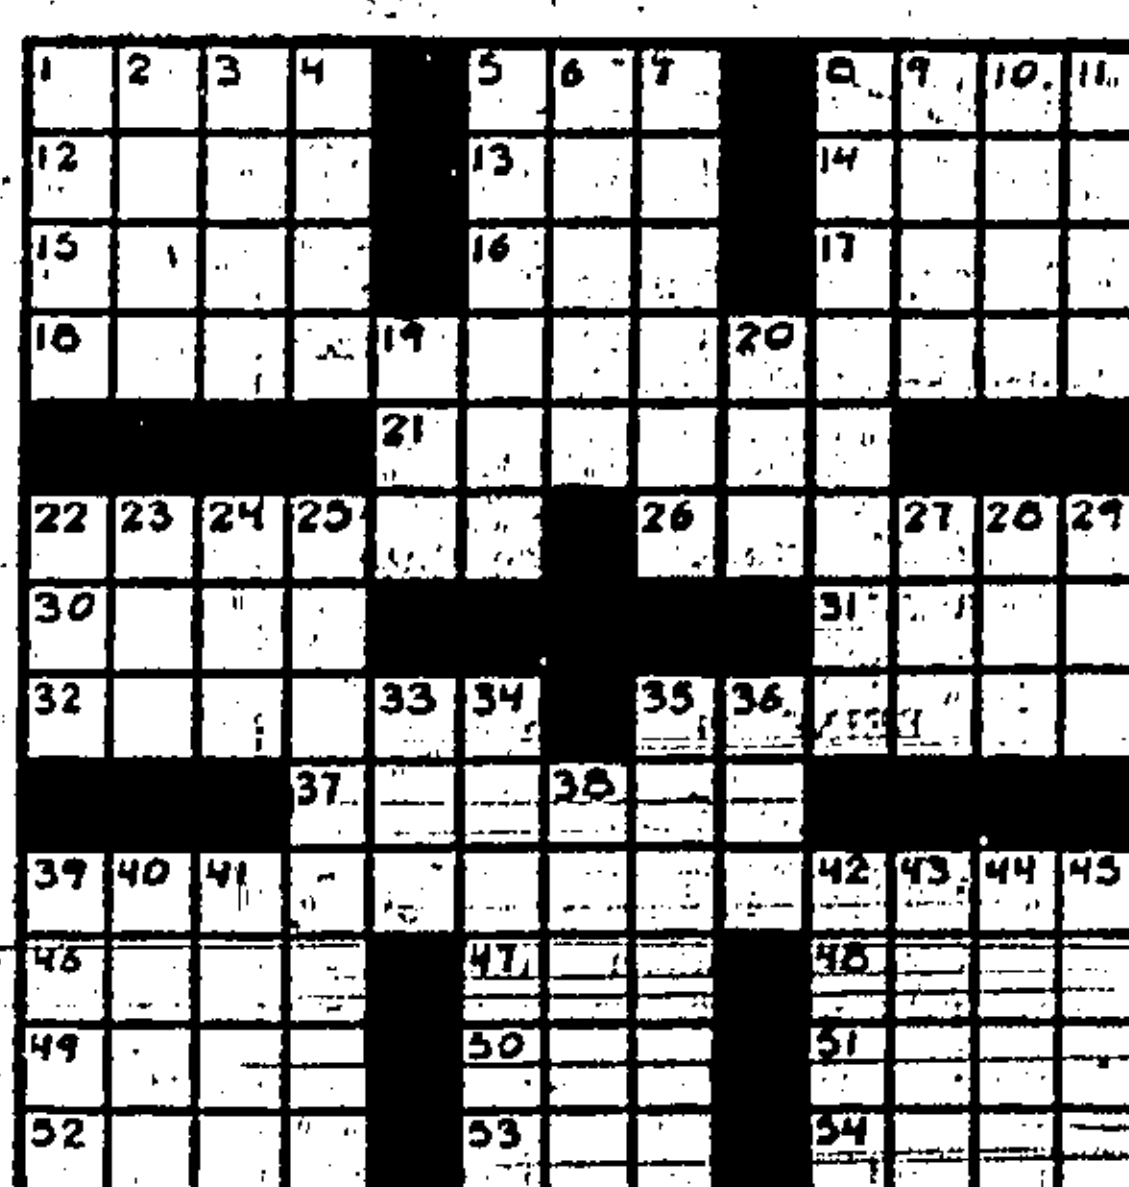

"One of the distressing things of our village life is to find it beset with a tremendous number of motor cars with rather flamboyant and excitable young women, who go to the local inns and make our village life horrible."

"I wish they would, stay away, or go right out on Dartmoor and leave us alone to our quiet life, and not spoil things and set a bad example to our own girls and boys."

BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY NOT GOING TO GENEVA

Great Need For Reducing Tension In Czech Issue

HITLER'S AIDE TO VISIT LONDON

London, September 9.
Lord Halifax, Foreign Secretary, is not going to Geneva to attend the League Assembly as planned. Owing to the need for keeping in close contact with the Premier and his other colleagues during the present state of the negotiations in Czechoslovakia, Lord Halifax has been obliged to postpone his visit, according to an official statement.

The Prime Minister's return to London, the postponement of Lord Halifax's departure and a round of consultations in Downing Street, culminating in the announcement that a Cabinet meeting has been fixed for Monday at 11 a.m., provide indications of the seriousness with which the Czechoslovakian situation is being watched in British quarters.

It is understood that the Cabinet meeting is being called for the purpose of enabling the Ministers to hear an account of recent developments in the international situation.

The meeting yesterday between the Prime Minister, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, and Lord Halifax lasted for an hour and a half, but no information regarding the outcome of the talks at Downing Street has been made available as yet.

LIKELIHOOD OF INCIDENTS

Well-informed quarters in Britain express the hope that there may be a speedy resumption of negotiations in Prague. It is recognised that while tension remains at its present height the likelihood of such incidents as that which occurred at Maehrisch-Ostrau is bound to be present.

Emphasis is also given to the great need for reducing tension by starting a serious consideration of the Prague Government's proposals, and it is pointed out that this move would create a most favourable impression, while the reverse would be true if, when so much is at stake, any incident should be allowed to lead to further suspension of the negotiations. (Reuter).

DOWNING STREET ACTIVITY

London, Sept. 9.
Lord Inskip (Minister for the Coordination of Defence) and Sir Kingsley Wood (Air Minister), called at Downing Street yesterday afternoon. Later callers included Mr. Malcolm MacDonald, (Colonial Secretary).

In the afternoon Lord Halifax and Sir Robert Vansittart (Chief Diplomatic Adviser) had a further conference with the Premier, Sir Neville Chamberlain, the conference lasting until about 9 p.m. The Polish Charge d'Affaires called at the Foreign Office during the afternoon. (Reuter).

CAPT. WIEDEMANN

Nuremberg, Sept. 9.
It was reported here last night, but not yet officially confirmed, that Herr Hitler may send his personal Aide, Captain Wiedemann, to take further soundings in London to ascertain British feeling with regard to the Czechoslovakian problem. (Reuter).

NO NEW MEASURES

Paris, Sept. 9.
Rumours that France is preparing new military measures are denied by official quarters. The Premier, M. Daladier, conferred last night with M. Bonnet, Foreign Minister, on the international situation. (Reuter).

SOVIET ALLEGES CZECHS BEING PRESSED

Moscow, Sept. 9.
A Soviet spokesman refused to comment this morning on the Czechoslovakian situation, arguing that it was the concern of other nations more than of the Soviet, particularly of Britain and France, whom the Soviet press bitterly condemns for their alleged pressure on the Czechs to accept the Sudeten terms. (Reuter).

PRAGUE INQUIRY

Prague, Sept. 8.
Two important developments occurred today, neither of which is regarded as calculated to help the Czechoslovakian cause.

Firstly, Sudeten complaints regarding the ill-treatment of 82 prisoners from Freiwaldau, near Maehrisch-Ostrau, have been substantiated as the result of a Government inquiry. Six men were arrested, it appears, for being in possession of arms illegally and they apparently had been beaten, chained deprived of food and generally ill-treated.

It is gathered that Premier Hodza has not only promised the fullest satisfaction to the aggrieved men, but has already suspended a number of police and officials, who

SEQUEL TO SHOT AT KING— STUDENT FREED

Alexandria, Sept. 9.
A mixed court of inquiry has released the Syrian law student, Jean Asfar, who was charged with possession of firearms after a shot had been fired at King Farouk on Monday.

Asfar stoutly denied that he possessed the pistol with which the shot was fired. (Reuter).

constitutional authorities are powerless to ensure the respect of civil rights against military bureaucratic influences, and promises to submit a memorandum to the Government dealing with the disturbances which have increased the tension for which the Sudeten German Party had declined any responsibility. (Reuter).

MUCH SPECULATION

London, Sept. 9.
The return to London of the Premier, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, his subsequent conferences with his colleagues and the summoning of a Cabinet meeting for Monday has aroused much speculation in the press here.

Various diplomatic correspondents assert that the Prime Minister and his colleagues discussed the question of the dispatch to Berlin of a note to indicate the grave consequences which would follow direct German action against the Czechoslovakian Government.

A reassuring note was struck by the London Times which says there is nothing in yesterday's developments in London to provoke fresh anxiety—rather the reverse is the case. The situation in Central Europe has not suddenly become more alarming, the paper declares.

THREE OR FOUR DAYS

The Daily Herald describes the summoning of the Cabinet as a precautionary measure, and says that either the Czech situation will improve considerably during the next three or four days or will have become so critical that decisions of the gravest importance may have to be taken. (Reuter).

FLOWER DESIGNS IN JEWELLERY

EVEN pearls, which are the leading jewel fashion, must conform to the lines of bold modern jewellery. Real pearls in out-of-date forms should be taken to a jeweller to be restrung, redesigned, or re-grouped into pieces that represent present-day ideas of chic and charm.

The favourite pearl necklace is made from three or four short rows of good-sized gems. They may graduate up to a centre pearl the size of a cherry, or they may be composed of well-matched pearls the size of large currants. The clasp that holds these strands of pearls together may be formed of a group of emeralds arranged like an ivy leaf, square rubies in the form of a snake, or a star-like mass of cabochon sapphires and baton-diamonds.

DIAMONDS and gold are the constant partners of pearls. Calices of brilliant cut diamonds support pearls in a delicate harebell brooch. Raised petals of waterlilies appear on the surface of a broad gold bracelet, each waterlily enclosing a centre group of pearls.

Two golden stems of Solomon's seal bend round to form another bracelet, the delicate pearl flowers raising their heads on stalks of gold.

Another lovely pearl ornament is designed to be worn as a modern one-sided tiara at night. It represents a lily of the valley, the flowers being of pearls and the leaves of carved jade and emeralds. This spray can be used as a brooch.

Pretty Naval Wedding At St. John's Cathedral

MISS V.A. BUCKLEY BECOMES BRIDE OF LT.-CDR. H.G. BURY

(Photo: J. C. P.)

St. John's Cathedral was yesterday the scene of a very pretty Naval wedding when Miss Verona Antoinette Buckley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Buckley, of Jersey C.I., became the bride of Lt.-Comdr. Herbert Geoffrey St. John Bury, Royal Navy.

The Very Rev. J. L. Wilson officiated at the ceremony and the bride was given away by Major J. C. McDonald, Lieut.-Comdr. E. L. Woodhall, Royal Navy, acted as best man.

The bridesmaid, Miss Hope Turnbull, looked very charming in a white organza dress cut with shirred bodices and a full skirt. She carried a bouquet of flame gladioli and white tuberose.

The Matron of Honour's duties were performed by Mrs. J. C. McDonald.

The bride wore a beautiful dress of white organza patterned with small leaves, cut on straight lines with a train cut in one with a skirt. She carried a bouquet of white asters and tuberose.

For her going-away dress, she chose a white sharkskin jacket over a lavender blue linen dress with a white hat and accessories to match.

After the ceremony a reception was held on board H.M.S. Tamar when guests were received by Commodore and Mrs. E. B. C. Dicken.

The honeymoon will be spent in French Indo-China.

WEDDING BELLS UNION CHURCH

Pretty Bride From Long Island

POST-GORDON

A week ago, the groom arrived from Melak, Dutch South East Borneo. There he had for more than two years represented the Christian and Missionary Alliance, spreading the Gospel in a really far corner of the earth. The groom—the Rev. Harry W. Post.

A.R.P. COURSE

A. R. P. lectures in English and an instructors' course for women will commence at the St. John Ambulance Headquarters on Wednesday at 5.30 p.m.

Brigade members who have not taken the A.R.P. examination are also requested to attend.

If necessary, the course can be expedited by having bi-weekly lectures.

The lecturers are Mrs. Steele-Perkins (A.R.P. Gr. I) and Mrs. Langley (A.R.P. Gr. I).

AT KOWLOON

Thursday last was the date of the bride's arrival. The R.M.S. Empress of Japan brought her. The bride, a pretty lady from Long Island, is Miss Mary Gordon.

And whom would Wichow, Kwangsi, contribute to this pretty wedding? You guess! A really important figure in the "dramatis personae" of a wedding group—the preacher, the Rev. Dr. W. H. Oldfield!

In the group photograph later—to him the place of honour.

The scene of the ceremony—the Kowloon Union Church.

BROADED LACE

The bride was clad in white broaded lace. A coronet held in place the tulle veil. The bouquet was of Chinese lilies and cape jasmine.

There were yet others present who had travelled to the wedding. From French Indo-China came the Rev. Alfred Pruett and Mrs. Pruett. Mr. Pruett was best man. Mrs. Pruett Matron of Honour. She was in aquamarine and her bouquet was of gladioli.

No. 4, Belfram Road, later, was the scene of the reception. There to the Press went in search of detail.

"The press-agents are here," someone exclaimed. The groom himself accepted the challenge.

Yes, his bride was from very near Maine, as the Press had guessed. She was from Long Island, New York. The groom? No, he wasn't from Washington. The home town was Chicago.

A week in Hong Kong. Then away. The eventual destination—Mallinau, Dutch Borneo.

It's A Way Babies Have

Don't talk "baby talk." A child is capable of learning correct words, even though it may pronounce them incorrectly at first.

Don't say "Don't"—but wait and reason with the little ones. This is an excellent way of teaching a child to think for itself.

Never be "too busy" to answer questions children ask. Rather encourage little ones to be of an inquiring mind. It is only by asking that one finds out—and learns.

Don't fail to keep a promise given to a child—even, sometimes, if it is a punishment! "Keeping your word" increases trust.

Don't, in fairness to the child, let it have its own way—even "for the sake of peace." The sooner a child learns that there are other people to be considered, the better it will be for it in later life.

THE KING OF GLAMOUR DIES

The man who prepared every famous film-star of the day for the set, Hollywood's king of glamour, has died.

Max Factor was sixty-one. He died after a long illness from kidney trouble, says a London correspondent.

Thirty years ago Factor tramped into Hollywood with a bag full of cosmetics. He opened a saloon, then others; grew famous throughout U.S.

He had visited England, and expressed the opinion that English women did not understand the art of cosmetics.

His advice to women was: "Be natural; natural beauty is better than any make-up."

CLAIM FOR POSSESSION OF PREMISES HEARD

Defence Denies Tenancy Was Monthly

A claim for possession of the first floor of No. 12 Fleming Road, and the ground and first floors of No. 14 Fleming Road, Wanchai was heard before the Acting Chief Justice, Mr. Justice R. E. Lindsell, yesterday.

Plaintiff, Yuen Yan, was represented by the Hon. Mr. Leo D'Almada Jr., instructed by Mr. D. McCallum, and Mr. H. Somerset Fitzroy, instructed by Mr. C. A. Sutherland. The defendant, Yiu Sam, trading under the name of San Ah Restaurant.

Mr. D'Almada said that the premises were let on a monthly tenancy basis and the action was based on a notice to quit. This notice was served on April 30 last. According to the pleadings, the defence was threefold:—(a) a denial that the tenancy was monthly, a denial that the notice to quit was served on April 30, but on May 1, and (b) defendant claimed relief under the Evictions Ordinance.

Counsel stated that the notice was served by a clerk employed by Mr. McCallum, who went to the premises shortly after noon on April 30. Defendant not being present at the time, the notice was left with her husband.

SERVING NOTICE
Ng Chi-ngam, clerk, gave evidence to the effect of having served the notice on April 30. He said that when he returned to the office he reported to Mr. McCallum.

Mr. McCallum took the witness stand and gave corroborative evidence.

Plaintiff said in evidence that he obtained a lease on the premises on September 30, 1937 for two years. At the time defendant was the occupant of the two floors on a monthly tenancy basis at a rental of $190. He had never entered into an agreement with her to stay until the end of the lease.

TALKED MATTER OVER
On being cross-examined, plaintiff admitted having written a letter to defendant, last December requesting her to pay $50 more if she desired to remain in occupation of the premises. He later met her at a tea-house, and they talked the matter over. He did not agree to accept $200 in lieu of the increase in rent, although he allowed defendant to remain in the premises for three further months. The reason for his doing this was because his mother asked him to do so.

Questioned by His Lordship, plaintiff stated that he wanted the premises for his own use. The case was adjourned till next Friday.

BOUND OVER FOR KEEPING MUTSAL

Two women were bound over when they were charged at Central Court yesterday for keeping unregistered mutsal.

Appearing before Mr. Butters, Tse Pei-tsan, 21, residing at No. 5 Kee Cheong Street, was bound over in a sum of $100 for one year.

Defendant took the girl to the S. C. A. to be registered on Thursday. The girl, Chan Fung-ngan, aged 14, had been presented to defendant by her mother as part of her dowry.

CAME FROM CANTON
Chu Kim-sang, 40, was bound over by Mr. Edwards in a sum of $50 for one year on a similar charge.

Inspector H. W. Fraser of the S. C. A. told the court that the child, Tam Ngau-nai, aged 15, was presented when she was very young to defendant's mother, in return for which the latter had given two dollars as "lucky money."

The girl remained with defendant's mother until August 31, when she was brought down to Hong Kong on account of the trouble in Canton. Defendant took her to the S. C. A. on Thursday to be registered.

Mass British trade and other interests on the Yangtze and elsewhere in China, where in China, efforts to protests from London against these efforts have been ignored, and the TRADE statement made by the Japanese in regard to aircraft indicates that they do not intend, for one second, to pay any attention to the rights and interests of foreigners in China. The next step, on the part of the Powers concerned, should therefore be action.

It appears that the only thing that will bring the Japanese to their senses will be to hit them economically, by restricting their trade. In this connection the British Empire is ideally placed to do the most damage, for the greatest proportion of Japan's overseas trade is with the Empire.

If Britain decided to apply prohibitive tariffs against imports from Japanese sources the blow would be so great that the Island Empire would be affected from end to end.

This would probably have a better effect on the Japanese than diplomatic representations—for diplomatic representations only bear results when addressed to a self-respecting nation.

THERE HAVE ALREADY been reported threats of an economic war against Japan but until such time as this is enforced by the Japanese, the Japanese will continue with their ruthlessness and mere look upon the threats as a huge joke.

The policy of making empty promises and protestations of entirely benevolent intentions has carried the Japanese leaders along quite smoothly up to the present, but there are limits to the indignities which they may be allowed to heap upon the western powers.

The limit is almost reached now and it is our considered opinion that the declaration that civil aircraft flying over Chinese territory are to be treated as hostile, cannot fail to help hastening the day for concerted action.

ONE-ARMED WATCHMAN
COMMENDED

Yau Lul, a one-armed watchman employed by the Public Works Department, was warmly commended at the Kowloon Court yesterday by Mr. Barnett.

His Worship asked the police officer prosecuting that the watchman's arrest of two thieves on Tuesday night be brought to the attention of his employers, so that the watchman would be rewarded for his efforts.

The two men, Chinese Wing, a Liverpool born Chinese, and Lo Hung were sentenced to five months and three months respectively, on a charge of larceny of engineering tools from a P. W. D. shed.

Hardcourt Tennis

THREE DOUBLES MATCHES PLAYED OFF

PANG AND MOK IN SEMI-FINALS

Three doubles matches, postponed from Thursday, were played in the Colony Hardcourt championships at the United Services Recreation Club yesterday, the pairs emerging victors being the Rumjahn, Fincher and Remedios, and Pang Ol-lam and Mok Fuk-in.

The Rumjahn cousins conceded four games in each set to Chan and Hsu, and though this score rather flattered the losers, it is also true that they showed good form in a number of rallies.

Fincher and Remedios always had something to spare against F. T. Baines and Major Newham, but here again the losers gave a fair account of themselves, and their three games in each set were well earned.

Pang Ol-lam and Mok Fuk-in, a comparatively new combination, who have been playing very well in the competition, had an easy win over D. S. Sze and F. Grose. They showed a good understanding, and though the chances are against them getting through their semi-final tie, whoever they might meet there, and very slim, they should put up a good fight on yesterday's form.

Results:—
H. D. Rumjahn and S. A. Rumjahn beat A. Chan and Hsu 6-4, 6-4.
E. C. Fincher and A. V. Remedios beat F. T. Baines and L. A. Newnham 6-3, 6-3.

Pang Ol-lam and Mok Fuk-in beat D. S. Sze and F. Grose 6-2, 6-2.

MILITARY CAMP AT CHEUNG CHAU ABANDONED

Following the letter to the press written by the Director of Medical Services, Hon. P. S. Selwyn-Clarke, stating that in some cases of cholera the "person attacked undoubtedly acquired the disease in Cheung Chau Island," it was revealed yesterday that the military holiday camp on the Island has been abandoned.

The order to abandon camp came almost without warning and as something of a shock to the men affected.

Residents of the Island are reported to be amazed at Dr. Selwyn-Clarke's statements, as it is the opinion of some that, although the Chinese village is in some respects dirty, and therefore possibly germ-infested it is not very much more so than many of the meager streets in Hong Kong.

YOUTHS GAOLED FOR THEFT OF CLOTHING

Three unemployed youths, Chan Yung, Tam Yuk and Lam Chin, were given nine weeks' imprisonment each by Mr. Butters at the Central Court yesterday when they pleaded guilty to three charges of theft of clothing from houses in Felix Villas.

They were seen by a house boy while stealing a singlet, from the clothes line at No. 1 Felix Villas, and were arrested after a chase. From inquiries made they admitted the two other charges.

TWO FINED FOR SPEEDING

Sapper L. Williams of Wellington Barracks, was fined $20 by Mr. Butters at the Central Court yesterday when he pleaded guilty to the summons for driving a military lorry at a speed of 30 miles per hour in King's Road on August 29.

P. B. Wilson was fined $10 for driving a motor car at an excessive speed along Queen's Road East on August 28.

CONTRAVENTION OF TRAFFIC RULE

C. E. White, of the Far East Motors, was fined $10 by Mr. Butters at the Central Court yesterday when he pleaded guilty through a representative, to the summons for contravention of a condition of the new traffic regulations by permitting a motor trader's licence to be used for a vehicle which was under his control in Des Voeux Road Central on August 20.

GOVERNOR SEES CHINESE SWIMMER BREAK RECORD

Chan Wing-kai Wins 50 Yards In 25 1/5 Seconds

Mak Wai-ming's Endurance In Quarter Mile Event

Brilliant swimming on the part of Chan Wing-kai in the 50 Yards Free Style Championship of the Colony when he broke the record for this event, his time being 25 1/5 seconds and the splendid endurance of Mak Wai-ming in the 440 Yards Free Style Championship were the features of yesterday's Colony Championship swimming meet at the V. R. C., which was attended by H.E. the Governor and Lady Northcote, and H.E. General and Mrs. A. W. Bartholomew.

In the 50 Yards Free Style there were five competitors, but the race was between Chan Wing-kai and D. H. Taylor who finished a close second.

The 440 Yards Free Style was Mak Wai-ming's race. He led from the start and was followed by Lt. Calvert and Robert Chan. Just after the first 100 yards, Mak swam a bit blindly and crossed over to Calvert's lane, but he soon realised this and immediately went back to his lane, saving himself from being disqualified.

Robert Chan passed Calvert after the 350 mark and when Mak had finished, half a length ahead of Chan.

The Diving Championship, as expected, was won by L. Roza-Pereira, but he was not very much ahead of Chan Boon-chee, who annexed 105.88 points to the winner's 105.94 points for the eight dives. E. da Roza was third.

THE RESULTS
The following were the results of yesterday's events:—
Boys' 100 Yards Handicap (Free Style):—1. T. Lopes, Time 79 secs.; 2. J. Fenton, 89 3/5 secs.

CHINESE FORCES FORMING NEW LINE IN VICINITY OF CHAILING

SERIOUS FLOOD IN NORTH KIANGSU

Haiyin, Kiangsu, Sept. 9.
Over 30,000 square miles of land including the towns of Paoying, Kaoyu, Yangchow and Taihsien in north Kiangsu are flooded, rendering tens of thousands of people homeless and destitute.

The flood is caused by the overflowing of Hungtse Lake, on the Kiangsu-Anhui border, which has been swollen by Yellow River flood waters flowing into it through the Hwai River.

The flood situation has been further aggravated by rain storms in the past few days.

General Han Teh-ching, Chairman of the Kiangsu Provincial Government, has sent another telegram to Dr. H. H. Kung, President of the Executive Yuan, appealing for relief for the numerous flood victims.—(Central News).

FIGHTING AT JUICHANG FRONT

WITH THE CHINESE FORCES AT THE JUICHANG FRONT. SEPTEMBER 9.

Fighting continues unabated in the outskirts of Juichang. Throwing in heavy reinforcements, the Japanese are attacking T'ingzeshan, a strategic hill in the north-western outskirts. Attack after attack has been hurled back by the Chinese.

After their repeated attempts to dislodge the Chinese at Moshan (Grindstone Hill), on the Juichang-Yangtsin highway were foiled by stout Chinese resistance, the Japanese are now trying to break through the Chinese line at Hsia motung (Frog Cave), a point in the neighbourhood.

The Chinese are stubbornly resisting.—(Central News).

JAPANESE EVACUATE KWANGTSI ON NORTH BANK OF THE YANGTSE

Kushih Situation Obscure

Hankow, September 9.
JAPANESE FORCES YESTERDAY MORNING EVACUATED KWANGTSI—on the north bank of the Yangtse River, according to Chinese reports.

The Chinese are now said to be forming a new line in the vicinity of Chailing.

A Chinese military communique claims that the Chinese are trying to exert pressure on the Japanese flanks in order to check the latter's advance westwards along the highway from Kwangtsi towards Kichun.

"The situation at Kushih is obscure," according to an official Chinese statement.

The Japanese are said to be attempting to move westward with the object of cutting the Peiping-Hankow Railway northward of Hankow in the vicinity of Sinyang.—(Reuter).

GREAT JUBILATION
Hankow, Sept. 9.
Reports that the Chinese forces have recaptured Kwangtsi in a counter-offensive led to great jubilation in Chinese circles here today.

It is claimed that the Japanese left behind "over 1000 dead and 40 field pieces and retreated northwest."

It is stated that when the Japanese advanced westward from Kwangtsi, the Chinese command set a trap for them at Sangyangchiao, five miles west of Kwangtsi, by concentrating strong forces on both sides of the highway.

At the same time, a strong column was sent to the Japanese rear, ten miles east of Kwangtsi.

WITHIN CITY WALLS
In a simultaneous offensive, Chinese dispatched state, the Chinese drove the Japanese within the city walls.

Kwangtsi was later recaptured, and the Chinese are now said to be converging on Huangmel.

The Chinese position on the north bank of the Yangtse is stated to have been considerably consolidated by this victory.

Heavy fighting is said to be progressing in the Singtse sector, where the Japanese are said to be trying to break through the Chinese right wing in order to go behind the new Chinese line 10 miles north of Tehan.—(Reuter).

JAPANESE DENIAL

Shanghai, Sept. 9.
The reported recapture of Kwangtsi is now officially denied by local Japanese military authorities.

Japanese unofficial reports claim that the Japanese are continuing their advance to Hankow along three fronts.

On the northern bank of the Yangtse Japanese columns are said to be striking to the north and west of Kwangtsi.

Chiehling, half-way between Kwangtsi and Kichun, is reported to be now threatened.

On the south bank, Japanese troops are converging on Tehan, it is stated, seeking to penetrate the triple system of defences manned by approximately 20 divisions of Chinese troops under General Yu Chih-shih.

The Japanese, it is claimed, are already closing in on the first Chinese defence line at Hwang-tongpu, four kilometres south-east of Mahwelling.—(Reuter).

"BLACK-OUT" TEST WAS SUCCESSFUL

An exercise of this description with its element of surprise, is sure to show up the weak points, but I am delighted to be able to inform you that very few weaknesses were disclosed, and perhaps the greatest of all was the failure of a small minority of motorists to dim their lights. At Robinson Road there was also a few lights which were not extinguished at all.

It was also noticed that a small number of motorists were using white tissue paper for their lights, whereas dark blue tissue paper or materials would have given the best results.

BICYCLE LAMPS

It is also apparent that bicycle lamps must be shaded with dark blue paper etc., as several children riding bicycles with undimmed lights in the Wanchai playground, were clearly visible from an observation post on the Peak.

Shipping in the harbour was successfully darkened.

There were one or two lights which were visible on the ferry piers, and the reflection on the water from the ferries was most marked, and in this connection I hope to carry out some trials to overcome this weakness.

The trams were inconspicuous and the darkening arrangements were quite satisfactory.

Kowloon was an outstanding area of utter darkness, and there were several districts in Hong Kong which were almost as good.

ANOTHER "BLACK-OUT"

I should like to ask the general public at the next "black-out" which I hope will be held some time next month, to again give me their co-operation. In this connection I would suggest a more extensive use of dark blue tissue paper or dark blue material, and I hope to obtain approval for all private cars to remain stationary during the "black-out", as there was no doubt that in this last exercise aircraft could have been guided to the Colony by the undimmed lights of moving cars.

There are numerous other points which I would like to tell you about, but I am afraid that this information cannot be made public. On the other hand it is only right for me to inform you that very valuable lessons have been learnt as a result of last night's exercise.

I have just heard through the courtesy of the China Light and Power Co., that their normal load was reduced by 4,300 kilowatts within 70 seconds of the searchlights appearing—this fact alone points to the rapidity with which Kowloon residents blacked out. A similar reduction in load was experienced by the Hong Kong Electric Co.

Thank you all very much indeed and I trust I did not put you to very much inconvenience, but you may rest assured that no further "black-out" will take place this month.

I would now like to ask Colonel Irwin, who is well-known to you all, to give you his first impressions of the "black-out".

COLONEL IRWIN

Colonel Irwin said:—
Most of you will remember the two previous "black-out" practices which have been held in the Colony, one in December last year and the second in February this year. For the first of those "black-outs" fairly ruthless instructions were issued to ensure that the people turned off their lights with the result that for the period of the "black-out" most of them switched out their lights completely, and sat out in their gardens or walked about the streets. No attempt was made on that occasion to reduce traffic lights.

In the February "black-out" an alternative scheme was tried out by which the people were asked to co-operate by preparing their houses in such a manner as to be able to continue living in them in spite of the "black-out" but in such a way that their lights would not be visible from outside. Furthermore it was impressed on the Colony that it would be inadvisable to base our "black-out" system on cutting off light and power at the mains because of the dangerous and perhaps alarming effect which this would have on all of us. Traffic lights on the second occasion were dimmed. On the whole this second practice was regarded at the time as a great success because undoubtedly everybody did take great trouble to prepare their houses in the way that they had been advised to.

WARNING SYSTEM

In neither of the two previous "black-outs" was any warning system practised, but at the time it was notified that experiments would be carried out in the future to discover some means by which the whole Colony might be warned of the imminent arrival of air attack.

The "black-out" which took place last night carried the whole exploration of this problem a step further by combining:—

First:—A period of preparation during which steps could and should have been taken to prepare lights for the occasion.

Second:—The element of surprise, to see with what speed the people could bring their preparations into play.

Third:—The testing of a warning system.

The first question which we all ask ourselves is "was the 'black-out' a success?" Before answering that it is necessary to ask ourselves for what purpose we blacked out at all and I think we can briefly answer this by saying that we "black-out" in order to make it as difficult as possible for an enemy to identify particular portions of the Colony and furthermore to make it particularly difficult for what are known as military organizations to be easily recognizable.

The true answer cannot be given to whether the "black-out" was a success or not except from actual flying experience at the time. Unhappily this was not possible last night on account of weather conditions immediately before the "black-out" was due to start. These conditions, although bright at the time of the "black-out", had rendered the aerodrome not fit for flying off.

HOSTILE AIRMAN

Consequently it is difficult to give you a true description of what the Colony would have looked like to a hostile airman. I have been asked by Wing Commander Steele, Perking to supplement his remarks with this broadcast because on the two previous occasions I was in the air myself.

With that experience as a background I must try now to give you my impressions which in fact are the result of merely standing on the roof of my house in May Road. Nevertheless there were a number of observers throughout the Colony and their reports are embodied in my remarks that I have to make.

The black-out was a success. The people, almost to a man, traffic, public and private, establishments such as Docks, Military Barracks and so on, observed their lights with great speed. As must be inevitable there were instances of delay in obscuring lights or in forgetting not to turn on lights again in rooms not specially prepared for the purpose.

Undoubtedly the most noticeable feature and one which is likely to prove a more ready guide to an airman than anything else is the movement of traffic lights along roads and it appears inevitable that in the future all traffic will have to stop completely and extinguish its lights.

MORE "BLACKED-OUT"
As an actual comparison with the February "black-out" I would say that the Colony was more "black-out" last night than on that occasion, that leads me to remind you again of the conditions of the last "black-out", which was to ask the people to make their houses fit to live in actually during the period of the "black-out" and I wonder in fact if some part of the success of last night's practice was not due to householders switching off their lights and waiting in darkness until the practice was over.

That this was the case I will give you an example:—
At 9.25 p.m. a room which I can identify suddenly burst into light. Evidently somebody had come into the room for some purpose and had forgotten that it was not prepared for the "black-out" with the inevitable and dangerous result which I described. Undoubtedly people will have had their own experiences and have criticised certain street lights which failed to go out promptly or certain buildings which did not appear to have been obscured as quickly as others. Most of these have been noted officially with a view to avoiding a repetition on future occasions.

As regards the warning signal the experiment was an entirely new one. As carried out last night in a bright moon it may be safely said that the searchlights were not a success and in any case I would make it clear that they will not be available for that purpose in an emergency.

GOVERNOR WILL ATTEND TENNIS FINALS

His Excellency the Governor, Sir Geoffrey Northcote, and Lady Northcote, have kindly consented to attend the finals of the Colony Hard-court tennis championships at the United Services Recreation Club on Sunday, September 18.

Lady Northcote had further kindly consented to give away the prizes won in the tournament.

The dimming of private lights was not a complete success either. They varied in intensity in different localities and in any case were not sufficiently obvious to be readily noticed.

SIRENS GOOD

The ship's sirens and the special siren on Gloucester Building were good and were heard in most places bordering the Harbour, but this system to be a success must be extended to other parts of the Colony and particularly to the South side of the Island.

The rapidity with which the "black-out" took effect was very gratifying and showed that the people had studied the A.R.P.O. instructions and were on their toes to put them into effect and in this connection I would say that H.E. the Governor gave particular instructions that neither he himself nor any of his servants should be let into the secret as to when the "black-out" was to be.

You will say what good are these remarks if they are not based on what an airman would actually have seen from the air and my impression is that I have been flying there as on the previous occasions I should, on the whole have judged this "black-out" a shade better than the one in February.

As a matter of interest I would like to say that in some respects an odd light here or there may well be more confusing to an ill-intentioned airman than 100 per cent. darkness and therefore do not regard the practice as a failure if you yourselves saw odd lights visible on the hills or on the main land. At the same time do not regard it as your duty in the future to provide that particular light.

PEKING AND TIENTSIN TIMES

Outport Issues Burned Daily By Japanese

Tientsin, Sept. 9.
Referring to the daily burning of all outport issues of the Peking and Tientsin Times by the postal censors, presumably on instructions from the Japanese military authorities, the North China Star declares in an editorial that the action was "quite unjust and equally unwise."

The Times makes the fairest possible arrangement of news and the editorial comment is acted in accordance with the highest ethic of Anglo-American journalism, the leader adds.

After mentioning the issues in which the co-operation of the Japanese is lacking, Dr. Charles James Fox, Editor of the Star, declares that this is a matter between the Japanese authorities and Government bodies of the other Concessions.

He suggests that the high Japanese military officials, after considering the issue impartially, realise that they are unjustly punishing the newspaper for acts which it is not responsible and urges the lifting of the ban for the sake of peace and mutual understanding among the international community of Tientsin.—(Reuter).

SOVIET-JAPAN PARLEY

London, Sept. 9.
It is understood that the Soviet Government has accepted the Japanese proposals for the resumption of conversations on the organisation of a border demarcation commission.

The Japanese Ambassador to Moscow, Mr. Mamoru Shigemitsu, will confer with the Assistant Foreign Commissar, M. V. P. Potemkin, who will represent the Soviet Government during the absence of M. Litvinoff now in Geneva for the meeting of the Council of the League of Nations.—(Reuter).

land. At the same time do not regard it as your duty in the future to provide that particular light.

From the point of view of the Defence Services it is gratifying to know that such comprehensive steps are being taken by the Colony to achieve a high measure of readiness to meet an emergency from the air and that these measures are in the hands of a specially appointed officer so well qualified and well experienced for the task.

HIGH JAPANESE AIR OFFICERS KILLED

Shanghai, Sept. 9.
Following the death of Rear-Admiral Nintaro Kato, commanding the Japanese naval air force in China, and two flying officers at Liang-chuanhsien, 35 miles southwest of Ankiang, the Japanese Army Command at Shaho, south of Kiakiang, has announced the death of Colonel Hideo Samura.

Commanding the detachment bearing his name, Colonel Samura was wounded by Chinese fire while in action at Kungtsun, south of Shaho, on the Kiakiang-Nanchang Railway.

Another casualty was Lieut. Colonel Shinnichi Ueda, of the Kijima corps, who was killed in action at Chiehling, west of Maanshan. Colonel Ueda was a native of Kagoshima and took part in the Manchurian incident.

Rear-Admiral Kato was shot down by ground fire when he was flying in a giant machine on a reconnaissance trip above the Yangtse River. All the Japanese officers were killed on August 31.—(International).

MOTOR OFFENCES

For failing to use the left hand side of the road in manoeuvring a centrally placed structure in Argyle Street and Waterloo Road, and for failing to obey promptly a direction signal that was given to him by a police officer regulating traffic at the junction of Nathan Road and Prince Edward Road on August 16, E. C. Tregillus of Peace Avenue, was fined $35 at the Kowloon Court yesterday by Mr. Macfadyen.

For having driven his car in the controlled area in Nathan Road at a speed in excess of 20 miles per hour on August 14, A. E. van Langenburg, of He Mun Tin Street was fined $8.

DANGEROUS MANNER

A fine of $20 was imposed at the Kowloon Court, yesterday by Mr. Macfadyen on A. Molsayer, of Andre's Beauty Parlour, Gloucester Building, for driving his car in a dangerous manner in Castle Peak Road on August 13.

Mr. C. C. Roe, of the Medical Department, testified that defendant had overtaken his car without warning another car at that moment coming from the opposite direction.

200 CASUALTIES IN WUSHIHMEN BOMBING

Nanchang, Sept. 9.
At least 200 civilians were either killed or wounded at Wushihmen, north of Tehan in Kiangsi, during an air carnage, staged by over 20 Japanese bombers yesterday.

Bombs were showered all over the town, levelling nearly all the houses to the ground. The raiders also strafed the town with machine-gun fire.

Kian, about 195 kilometres southwest of here, was also bombed by six Japanese raiders. Over 30 bombs were dropped in the outskirts exacting a heavy toll from the farmers and demolishing a number of houses.—(Central News).

COMMUNAL DISTURBANCES IN NEW DELHI

New Delhi, Sept. 9.
British troops have been ordered to stand-by in New Delhi owing to communal disturbances between Hindus and Moslems. The trouble started when a Hindu priest was stabbed and there was stone throwing by Moslems.—(Reuter).

MR. S. YOSHIDA RECALLED FROM LONDON

Hankow, Sept. 9.
With the recall of the Japanese Ambassador, Mr. Shigeru Yoshida, from London, it is reported that either the Japanese Ambassador in Moscow or the retiring Ambassador from Berlin will be appointed to the London post.

Mr. Yoshida created a distressing impression when he gave an interview in July justifying Japanese bombing of non-military objectives in Canton as a means to demoralize the civil population. British circles were greatly shocked by this official utterance.—(International).

SPORTING NEWS AND NOTES

GREATEST BOWLING FEAT IN LOCAL CRICKET

FRANK PEREIRA'S TEN FOR FIVE RECALLED

Hong Kong's Fastest Ever And A True Sportsman

By NEW L.B.W.

The twentieth annual general meeting of the Indian Recreation Club, held on Wednesday, produced the usual comments from the Chair, the usual review of the past year's activities, and the usual appeal for more members.

With aspects of the meeting (the first held by a cricket club this year, I think) other than cricket, I am not concerned here. And, as the past season is still fairly fresh in the mind, I am not going to touch upon the club's success last year.

Reminded by a few short lines in their President's address, I propose to recall in detail a great feat by a great cricketer that happened only three years ago, and to add my own poor contribution in praise of his memory.

"The chairman mentioned the club's regret over the death of two of its former members, Messrs. Sirdar Khan and F. D. Pereira, who were held in high esteem by all members of the club. Members stood up in silence for a short while as a mark of respect to them."

A spontaneous tribute, but no more than they deserved. The name of Sirdar Khan is perhaps little known here now, but not so many years ago he captained the Indian Juniors, was one of their best bowlers, and at a pinch could make a few runs. I had not the pleasure of being closely acquainted with him, but I know his team-mates—and other club-mates too—liked and respected him.

PEREIRA—AND CHANCE

But for chance, and the enterprising vigilance of a member of the I.R.C. who shall be nameless, it is quite probable that Frank Pereira would have thrown in his lot with another club when he first arrived here—in which case, the history of local cricket for the past few years would doubtless read somewhat differently. However, he was recruited into the Indian ranks and with them lived to perform one of the greatest bowling feats ever recorded in any class of cricket, the dismissal of all ten men in one innings at the almost ridiculous cost of five runs.

The match was a league encounter between the I.R.C. and the University, played at Pokfulam on Saturday, January 19, 1935. The players were: University—E. L. Gosano (Capt.), D. Hunt, H. L. Ozorio, Dr. L. T. Ride, K. P. Gan, A. B. Tata, B. K. Ng, D. S. Blake, S. A. Reed, P. Power, and D. Roy. I.R.C.—F. D. Pereira (Capt.), A. R. Miru, A. H. Rumbhoo, S. A. Ismail, A. S. Suffad, M. el Arculli, Y. el Arculli, M. P. Madar, A. R. Abbas, A. Rahmin and A. M. Omar.

The University may be said to have been at full strength, but the Indians were without A. H. Madar, who was away in India.

REMARKABLE MATCH

It was a remarkable match indeed. The day was cold; some considered it one of the coldest that season. The University lost the toss and were sent in to bat. Some of the rest I am writing from memory, but I think it is accurate in substance. As usual, of course, Pereira took the first over, and trouble began right away, but it was trouble for the Indians; either Gan or Hunt, I rather think it was the latter, edged one to Abbas in the slips—and the latter took it on his ankle. Some dancing around and limping ensued, and then Abbas retired to the pavilion for attention.

H.E. TO MEET POLICE AT LAWN BOWLS

His Excellency the Governor, Sir Geoffrey Northcote, will lead a team against the Police in a lawn bowls match at the Police Recreation Club at 4 p.m. on Thursday, September 15.

U.S. Retains Curtis Cup

Manchester, Mass., Sept. 8. The British women golfers who made such a good start against the United States yesterday in the four comes in the Curtis Cup contest failed badly today in the singles.

Of the six games played today the American ladies won five, only Miss Charlie Tiernan being successful for the British team.

Mrs. Julius Page (U.S.) beat Mrs. A. M. Holm (Britain), by 6 and 5 after being four up at the ninth.

Miss Fatty Berg (U.S.) beat Miss Jessie Anderson (Britain) one up after leading by that margin at the ninth.

Miss Marion Miley (U.S.) beat Miss Elie Corlett (Britain) 2 and 1 after being one up at the ninth.

Mrs. Glenna Collett-Vare (U.S.) beat Mrs. J. B. Walker (Britain) 2 and 1 after being two up at the ninth.

Miss Glutting (U.S.) beat Miss Nan Baird (Britain) one up after, being all square at the ninth.

Miss Charlie Tiernan (Britain) beat Mrs. Orcutt-Crews (U.S.) after being one up at the ninth.

The United States therefore retains the Curtis Cup by five and a half points to three and a half. (Reuter).

RACING RESUMES PROSPECTS FOR MACAO MEETING TOMORROW

By "LAST QUARTER"

Racing fans will undoubtedly welcome the resumption of racing after the two months' summer vacation, and take advantage of the opportunity accorded them to indulge in their favourite pastime at the Arica Preta course on Sunday, when the Macao Jockey Club reopens their season. There is an interesting programme of seven events, including an unofficial Ladies Race, which event has now become a permanent feature of all race meetings in the Portuguese Colony.

The main event of the day will be the South China Cup, which has attracted a large entry and should be keenly contested. A Special $1 Sweep is being conducted on this race and sales, to date have been most encouraging. The s.s. "K-rshan" will leave Hong Kong at 9.30 a.m. on Sunday morning, returning from Macao at 3 a.m. on Monday morning, returning from Macao at 3 a.m. on Monday, and given brilliant weather, a large crowd is expected to make the trip which should prove most enjoyable at this time of the year.

TAISHAN HANDICAP

The afternoon's sport opens with a six-furlong sprint for Macao Jockey Club subscription griffins which have not met with much success during the first half of the current racing season. In reviewing the allotment of weights, it would appear that Rothsay Bay (135 lbs.) should give a good account of itself and will furnish the main opposition to Victory Life. Though the latter pony has to carry 163 lbs. I believe him good enough to do the trick.

Morning Tip should secure the minor position. Gold Clause is the best of the remaining entries.

TSINSHAN HANDICAP

Judging on past performances, one will not have to go far to pick African Cat, despite carrying too weight; as the probable winner in this six-furlong event. This race is confined to Novice Jockeys and I understand African Cat will be taken out by Mr. Jau, a Shanghai rider with a pleasing record.

For second place my choice is National Triumph, while there should be a keen tussle for third (Continued on Back Page) place between Macao Star and Mustard. The latter pony is very fast off the mark and may even upset here.

FATSHAN HANDICAP—(FIRST SECTION)

A great deal with depend on the start in this event as the distance is only half a mile. Double Chance is the best of the entries though none too reliable. Stymlie has always done well on the Arela Pretti course and will once again be dangerous.

Sahara Star and Wenning are also fair bets, though I am inclined to favour the former. I have been informed that Latitat is in fine fettle but as this pony is trained in Macao I have not been able to confirm the statement.

SOUTH CHINA CUP

This is the main event of the day and punters should witness a keenly contested race. There are at least four ponies capable of annexing the honours, namely Fairy Auk, Merry Doer, Shunghai 4 and Merry Maker. I was deeply impressed with Fairy Auk's performance just before the recess and believe him capable of winning especially since Shunghai 4 and being under a cloud for quite a while.

Victory Life is also a game racer but I am inclined to think the stable connections will start him in the first race instead. Merry Doer should be the one to make a race of it against Fairy Auk. The other possible candidate is Merry Maker, but at the most, I cannot see this pony do better than secure a place.

PAK SHAN HANDICAP

Bornichto is strongly fancied for this half mile sprint for "D" Class China ponies of the Hong Kong Jockey Club, but I do not believe this grey capable of beating Zero, who is a flyer over sprint distances.

Another contender for honours is Good Morning, while National Anthem would be the best outsider to follow.

FATSHAN HANDICAP—(SECOND SECTION)

This race is confined to "E" Class China ponies and should attract a fairly large field, though of rather poor standard.

Lucky Seven and Dark Hazard are the prominent ones and though I honestly consider the former the better of the two, one must not forget that Dark Hazard has performed most creditably in the early "morning" races for Novice Jockeys, held at the Happy Valley during the summer recess. For the remaining place, I like the chances of Mac's Second Venture.

LADIES' SPRINT

As this is a post entry event, it is difficult to make any forecast at the time of going to press. Punters will have an opportunity to back their own fancies, after looking over the starters in the paddock.

KOWLOON CLUBS BOWLS TEAMS

The following teams will play a friendly lawn bowls match at the Kowloon Bowling Green Club, today, commencing at 3.30 p.m.

Kowloon Football Club: A: Eastman, S. Dallow, T. Coleman and T. Ferguson; T. White, K. Cooper, C. Turney and W. Field; A. Lapsley, J. Ross, V. Atienza and V. Chittenden; H. Bunje, Dr. Smalley, J. Labrum and J. McKelvie; J. Dobson, K. Hamilton, C. Champelovier and P. Younghusband.

Kowloon Bowling Green Club: Jack Watson, H. E. Drew, J. S. Logan and J. G. Meyer; T. Armstrong, H. L. Lockhart, C. B. Hosking and A. Hyde Lay; R. P. Phillips, C. Wallis, John Watson and G. E. F. Thompson; G. C. Norman, L. A. R. Duncan, S. Randle and E. W. Lines; L. G. Commes, A. T. Lay, S. M. White and R. Duncan.

RIFLE ASSOCIATION MEETING

The quarterly meeting of the Hong Kong Rifle Association will be held on Monday in the extension room of the Hong Kong Hotel Roof Garden.

Major G. P. Murray, honorary secretary, will preside. The programme for the rifle season, which commences this month, will be discussed.

HAPPY VALLEY GOLF

In the Semi-final round of the Happy Valley second summer singles played on Thursday, G. M. Park (7) beat D. Humphreys (11) by two up and A. V. Greaves (14) beat A. B. Farves (8) by five and four.

GREATEST BOWLING FEAT

What followed reads like a cricketing novel. As I have not the scorebook with me—it is remarkable how undiscoverable such things are at times—I cannot describe every ball bowled, but in 8.5 overs, seven of which were maidens, the University Innings was over for 12 runs. In fact, if S. A. Ismail had not been (for him) a trifle off-form behind the stumps, this massive total would have been halved.

There were nine "ducks," Eddie Gosano, who had on the previous Saturday made 49 to help his team beat the Army, got a single, and Dr. Ride hit one brave boundary. The respective analyses of Pereira and Minu were

4.5-3-5-10 and 4-4-0-0

MINU'S UNSELFISHNESS

I remember as if it were only yesterday the excitement prevailing in the Indian eleven when Minu bowled what was to be his last over. Would he by some ill-chance "take the tenth wicket and thus ruin everything? Carefully he ran up to the bowling crease, carefully he swung his arm round to bowl a ball of immaculate length but not quite on the wicket, so that, unless the batsman was looking for "sudden death" no harm would come to him. Bowling for a draw, as some one said; Six times he did this, and the side heaved a sigh of relief.

At the other end Pereira again took the ball—keen, eager and confident. To three balls Blake presented a dead bat, the fourth one he jabbed at—and, by the grace of Providence, missed. As he turned for his fifth run, one could almost read the anxiety on the faces of the Indians. Would Minu have to bowl yet another over? The answer was immediate. With his short, swinging run Pereira raced up to the bowling crease and down the ball came—of the same vicious speed as its predecessor, but a trifle more on the mark. Blake once again tried to job it away from his wicket but only managed to deflect it—and second slip gratefully took his fourth catch.

SPEED AND ACCURACY

I have often since then pondered on the main cause of that sensational coup, and I fancy that the fact that there were seven extras in a total of 12 runs, with a player of the calibre of Ismail keeping wicket, is in itself a commentary.

By which I mean that it was speed, speed and most speed that came up, of course by an "unusual" degree of accuracy that was responsible. A glance at the score-sheet rather confirms this, for, of the ten wickets, five were clean bowled, one was as plumb an lb.w. as I have ever seen, and four catches were taken in the slips.

Throughout the innings (innings?) I was in a good position to judge and I am convinced that that day, if not before nor after, Pereira showed that he is the fastest bowler that has ever played in Hong Kong (excepting perhaps one or two passers-through.) The ball literally fizzed off the matting wicket and at least four of the five men that were clean bowled were in the act of bringing their bats down when their stumps were shattered. They were beaten by absolute speed, though it must be remembered that the cold very likely made their muscular reflexes slower.

Good losers as ever, though hardly used to being massacred like that, the Undergraduates were unstinting in their praise and congratulations, and Gosano presented Pereira with the ball, which was later suitably inscribed.

A TRUE SPORTSMAN

This, then, was the man to whose memory the President of the Indian Recreation Club called upon his fellow-members to pay tribute at their annual meeting. But it was not alone to the fine cricketer, the performer of great feats, the player whose deeds are indelibly recorded in local cricket, that they paid this tribute.

It was as much to the man himself, modest, unassuming, ever-obliging, a sportsman in every sense of the word, both on the field and off it—the man who was Frank Douglas Pereira.
